My dear Sir,

In view of the decision

My dear Sir,

From the proceedings of the Kolar Exemption Tribunal published in the Madras Mail of the 15th instant, I find that the Tribunal has refused Exemption to Mr. R. Bozart, Chief Inspr. of Mines.
Mr. Bowring had instruction from Govt. to obtain absolute Exemption from military service for this office and it is not clear on what considerations the Tribunal have decided otherwise. <sup>Shaw registered</sup> Mr. Bowring is ~~likely~~ to report the circumstances I shall also speak to him about the matter when I meet him <sup>here</sup> on the 18th exempted from military service.

~~and~~ He has <sup>also</sup> received necessary instructions from Govt. as to the grounds he has to urge in individual cases.

== In these circumstances I do not consider it necessary to require any other officer of Govt. to appear before the Tribunal as their representative. I

Dear Mr. Narasinga Rao,

The exemption application sent by me is to come off for hearing on the 18th and attendance is optional.

I do not know if any body representing the Mysore Durbar will appear and press for these exemptions as they have been asked for under orders of Government. It is likely many of them will be rejected.

As the Resident has I believe in his D.O. offered to assist, will you please take orders of the Dewan regarding the suggestion that the General Secretary may appear and urge the exemptions at least in a few special cases on behalf of the Durbar. You may have noticed Boquet and Beckwith have been refused by the Kolar Tribunal.
